CHALLENGE ENTRY

9. By participating, each entrant agrees to be bound by these conditions.
10. The challenge starts at the time and date specified in section 4 for each round. Entries must be received by the time and date specified in section 4 (Challenge Period).
11. To enter the challenge, the entrant must, during the Challenge Period:
Preliminary Round:
 - Each team must submit a 5-10 minutes video of their submission, along with a 1-page executive summary (PDF or Word document).

12. By entering the challenge, each entrant consents to:
 - (a) receipt of any communication regarding the challenge and other communication which informs the entrant of the Organisers's products, services and events; and
 - (b) the Organisers using the entrant's name, likeness, image, photo, testimony or submission to the challenge in any media for an unlimited period without remuneration for the purpose of advertising and marketing this challenge (including any outcome), the Organisers's products and services or the Organisers more generally.
13. All entries must be the original independent creation of the entrant, owned by the entrant and free of any claims, including copyright or trademark claims by other parties. Entries must not have been published previously or have won any awards or prizes in other competitions.
14. The Organisers reserves the right to:
 - (c) verify the validity of entries and entrants;
 - (d) disqualify any entrant who submits an entry that is not in accordance with these conditions;
 - (e) to disqualify any entrant submitting an entry which infringes a third party's intellectual property rights, or in the Organisers's opinion, includes objectionable content, including but not limited to profanity, potentially insulting, inflammatory or defamatory language.
15. Incomplete, indecipherable, or illegible entries will be deemed invalid. If there is a dispute as to the identity of an entrant, the Organisers reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to determine the identity of the entrant.

SELECTION OF WINNING ENTRANTS

16. For the Preliminary Round, judging will take place between 3 July 2024 and 10 July 2024. The finalists will be informed on Wednesday 10 July via email.
17. For the Final Presentation, judging will take place online on 20 July 2024.
18. The challenge is a game of skill. Each entry will be individually judged by the Organisers based on literary and creative merit. Chance plays no part in determining the winning entrant.
19. Specifically, the Challenge requirements and judging criteria for each round are:

Preliminary Round:

- Judges are made up of the UACC's executive team and MYOB team members.
- Finalists will be chosen based on a range of factors, most importantly the feasibility of the entrant's ideas and the implementation of their solution.
- Engagement on the video submission, such as amount of likes/comments, will also be considered by the judges in selecting the finalists at their full discretion.
- 6 Finalists (3 from NZ and 3 from AU) will be selected to prepare a 10-minute presentation for the final round.

Final Presentation:

- The panel of judges are two MYOB Executives and one external expert.
- The finals will be hosted online, where each team will present over the course of a day, ending with feedback and announcement of winners. The Judges' decision is final, but entrants are welcome to ask for additional feedback.
- Further information on the Final Presentation will be provided prior to the final.

- The presentation is to be made on PowerPoint (or any other slide creation software) and a member of the entrant's team will need to share screen during the presentation.
 - Each team will have 10 minutes to present, followed by a 10 minute Q&A session.
 - Winners will be chosen based on a range of factors, most importantly the feasibility of the entrant's ideas and the implementation of their solution.
20. The Organisers's decision is final and no correspondence will be entered into.
 21. Entries are limited to one per entrant.
 22. If for any reason a winning entrant does not take a prize by the time stipulated by the Organisers, then that prize will be forfeited.

WINNING ENTRANTS' NOTIFICATION AND PUBLICATION

23. The winning teams will be notified at the Final Presentation event on 18 July 2024.
24. The winning teams will be published via MYOB's marketing and social media channels (e.g., MYOB's LinkedIn and Twitter).
